

Indiana has take a significant step in stopping the annoying sales calls to my private residence. Either leave the state law alone or generate a federal law that totally eliminates these kinds of calls from anyone.